

Graduate Diploma of Psychological Studies

ISN.EDU.AU

Why choose ISN Psychology?

ISN Psychology aims to investigate the basis of character and temperament through the study of psychology, epigenetics, biochemistry, neuroscience, and ecology and to apply these findings to improving the health of individuals and societies. Graduates will learn to apply psychology to address challenges of the 21st century.

ISN Psychology allows you to learn and explore in an environment that is all about intellectual curiosity and freedom of expression. You will study in a tertiary college that specialises in psychology, where no other faculties compete for funds and resources.

DETAILS

Graduate Diploma of Psychological Studies

If you have completed a bachelor's degree in any discipline and wish to learn more about human behaviour or make a career change into psychology, ISN Psychology's Graduate Diploma of Psychological Studies is the right choice for you.

The Graduate Diploma of Psychological Studies is an APAC approved two-year program that bridges 4 years of Psychology study. It consists of eight core undergraduate units in year one and six core fourth year units in year two. This unique two year offering is ideal for those considering fast tracking a career path transition into psychology.

Students graduating with a Graduate Diploma of Psychological Studies would be eligible to apply for our Master of Psychology (Clinical) or other postgraduate psychology offerings.

The Graduate Diploma of Psychological Studies is an AQF level 8 qualification and is offered at ISN Psychology's Ivanhoe campus in Melbourne, Victoria. Online and blended components allow flexibility of delivery options.

An understanding of Human Nature like never before.

Students will explore areas of psychology such as personality, perception, cognition, learning, motivation, abnormal psychology, and developmental psychology. Students will gain knowledge about human behaviour and how this can be applied to various industries and everyday life. ISN Psychology provides a comprehensive understanding of Human Nature like never before.
